

The Foreign Policy Centre at the 2014 Party Conferences

Both events are open to all and both take place outside the conference secure zones – no conference pass or pre-registration is required to attend. More information: www.fpc.org.uk / events@fpc.org.uk

2014 FRINGE
MANCHESTER

What role for Britain?

Rethinking global peacebuilding and regional security in a rapidly changing world

Speakers

Yvonne Fovargue MP, Shadow Minister for International Security Strategy

Brita Fernandez Schmidt, Executive Director, Women for Women International UK

Samira Shackle, New Statesman

Hugh Ward MBE, Director Strategy & Business Development (LAND), Europe and the Greater Middle East, Saab AB

Chair: Gibril Faal OBE, Chairman, African Foundation for Development (AFFORD)

Monday 22 September, 5.30-7.15pm

Palace Hotel – Palace Room 1 (outside secure zone)

Oxford Street, Manchester M60 7HA

Refreshments will be available

Supported by

2014 FRINGE
BIRMINGHAM

Conservatives

What role for Britain?

Rethinking global peacebuilding and regional security in a rapidly changing world

Speakers

Rt Hon Stephen O'Brien MP, Prime Minister's Special Representative for the Sahel

Jawed Nader, Director, British and Irish Agencies on Afghanistan Group (BAAG)

Natalie Samarasinghe, Executive Director, United Nations Association-UK (UNA-UK)

Hugh Ward MBE, Director Strategy & Business Development (LAND), Europe and the Greater Middle East, Saab AB

Chair: Jeremy Cliffe, Britain Political Correspondent, The Economist

Monday 29 September, 5.30-7.00pm

Crowne Plaza Hotel – Meeting room 3 (outside secure zone)

Central Square, Holliday Street, Birmingham B1 1HH

Refreshments will be available

Supported by

